LECTURE ON THE PONTIFICATE OF POPE BENEDICT THE XVI

by Father John Perricone

Tuesday, March 7th 7:30 PM Rectory Ballroom

Rare are the Catholics blessed to live in the pontificate of a great Pope. We are amongst that privileged group, having lived during the papacy of Pope Benedict XVI. Some say that he was one of the greatest popes since St. Gregory the Great in the 7th century. His time on the throne of St. Peter was indeed remarkable, whose bounty stretched to subjects not only touching upon the lives of Catholics but the welfare of society itself. This lecture will explore some of the reasons why Pope Benedict XVI so enriched the lives of Catholics, as well as all men of good will.
