Pastor's Corner:

Today begins Holy Week, recalling Our Lord's last earthly days and His work for our salvation. Tenebrae, on Spy Wednesday (April 12 at 8pm) is a sung scriptural service setting the stage for the last three days of the week: Holy Thursday's evening Mass (April 13 at 8:00 p.m.) recalls the Last Supper during which Our Lord instituted the priesthood and the Eucharist, and when he was betrayed by Judas, denied by Peter and, later, arrested. It is during this most profound offering of Himself for our salvation that humanity betrayed the Son of God in the person of Judas Iscariot. Judas' betrayal of the Son of God for a mere 30 pieces of silver mirrored Lucifer's betrayal of God for power. In Dante's Inferno, Judas is placed in the lowest circle of Hell, named after him—Judecca. There, in the very heart of Hell, is Lucifer—frozen solid, raging in eternal isolation, yet unable to express his titanic hatred for God except by his bloody tears. Judas is with him. Satan, the betrayer of God the Creator and Redeemer, gnaws Judas, the betrayer of the Son of God, for all eternity.

The Gospel account tells us that Jesus knew the heart of Judas and the weakness of His other Apostles. Nevertheless, God, the Creator of the universe, who humbled Himself to be born in the flesh of the Virgin Mary, and who soon humbled Himself to feed His followers with His very Body and Blood, and who was about to sacrifice Himself on the Cross, bowed down before his Apostles to wash the feet of all Twelve, even those of His betrayer. Saint Augustine made this observation about Christ's humility and love for us: "Why wonder, since He poured water into a basin wherewith to wash His disciples' feet, who poured His blood upon the earth to wash away the filth of their sins? In order, indeed, to gird Himself with the towel, He laid aside the garments He wore; but when He emptied Himself [of His divine glory] in order to assume the form of a servant [at His birth as a man], He laid not down what He had [His divine nature] but assumed that which He had not before [our human nature]. When about to be crucified, He was indeed stripped of His garments, and when dead was wrapped in linen: and all that suffering of His is our purification. When, therefore, about to suffer the last extremities of humiliation, He illustrated beforehand its friendly compliance; not only to those for whom He was about to endure death, but to him also who had resolved on betraying Him to death. For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost. And as he [Judas] was lost by imitating the pride of the deceiver [Lucifer], let mankind now, when found [by Christ], imitate the Redeemer's humility." [Tracts on the Gospel of Saint John, LVI, 7]

Humility is an important virtue, yet one rarely practiced or encouraged in our society. There is only one God, and it ain't us! During this Holy Week, let us meditate upon the humility of the most powerful Persons in the universe—God the Father, Son & Holy Spirit. He humbled Himself to save us from our pride, which is the heart of all our sins. Let us practice God's humility, opening ourselves up to His saving grace—and go to Confession this week. Let our pride not lead us to imitate either Lucifer in his pride, or Judas in his betrayal of Christ. If we love Our Lord, we should show that love in the way we live our daily lives. He waits to forgive us; if only we humble ourselves and go to Him in the sacrament He gave His Church. Go to Confession and prepare for a holy Easter.

Another pious preparation is by making a pilgrimage. The practice of making a pilgrimage to a shrine or church is an ancient one. Early Christians visited the sites of Our Lord's suffering, death and resurrection in Jerusalem. Pilgrimages to the tombs of Saints Peter and Paul in Rome began immediately following their martyrdom in 64 A.D. Saint Philip Neri, one of the greatest of Roman parish priests, began the practice of the Pilgrimage of the Seven Churches during Lent in the early 1550's. By the end of the decade, there were thousands who joined him, visiting the seven great basilicas of the Eternal City. The Seven Church Pilgrimage on Holy Thursday evening came to America with the Catholic immigrants, and continues to this day. In today's bulletin you will find a sheet of paper with Saint John's Holy Week schedule, and, on the back side, a small map with the addresses of churches in Stamford and the times they will remain open on Holy Thursday evening [April 13th]. Come to Saint John's for the beautiful Mass of the Lord's Supper at 8:00 p.m., and then get in your car and make the Pilgrimage to Seven of Stamford's Catholic churches.

Spend some time there during this week—Holy Week, meditating on Christ's generous sacrifice to save you from eternal death: repent of your sins, go to Confession, and join in the

125 YEARS AGO, OR SO:

April 9, 1892: THE CHURCHES TOMORROW. Services on Palm Sunday. Impressive Ceremonials at the Catholic Church. “The Masses at St. John’s Roman Catholic Church on Palm Sunday will be at usual hours-7:30, 9 and 10:30 A.M. At the last named hour will take place the impressive ceremony of the blessing and distribution of palms. The recital of the passion-the story from the Gospel-will take the place of the sermon. The usual vesper service will be held. There will be services at 8 a.m. every day in Holy Week, and preparation at the confessional for the Easter sacrament. On Good Friday the church will be open through the day for the veneration of the cross. On Thursday there will be a procession of children and the adoration of the sacrament. A Solemn High Mass will be celebrated on Easter Eve, when the blessing of the new fire, Easter water and incense will occur. Last night’s devotions closed the Lenten season proper at the R.C. Church. The stations of the cross and benediction were features of the service. The Rev. Father Rogers has been honored by the Bishop by being selected as one of twelve pastors in the diocese to participate in the solemn services at the Cathedral in Hartford next Monday.”
