

“Coming to Know the Holy Spirit”

a Morning Reflection presented by

Sr. Anna Marie McGuan, RSM

Saturday, October 20, 2018

8:30 am – 1:00 pm

The Basilica of Saint John the Evangelist

A native of Gary, Indiana, Sr. Anna Marie McGuan is a Religious Sister of Mercy of Alma, Michigan. Prior to entering the community, she studied at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point for one year before discerning a call to the religious life. She has since studied in Rome at the Pontifical University of the Holy Cross and the Pontifical Biblical Institute. Sr. Anna completed her Licentiate in Sacred Scripture in 2016. She currently serves the Diocese of Knoxville, Tennessee as the Director of the Office of Christian Formation.

The program will include two talks by Sr. Anna, with time for questions, and will conclude with Exposition of the Most Blessed Sacrament, Benediction, the 12:10 pm Mass, and Rosary.

Open to everyone! Suggested donation of $10

To RSVP, please call Keri, our Parish Secretary, to sign up: (203) 324-1553, ext. 0.
Walk-ins on the day will be allowed.